

Ellie Marshall

Ellie Marshall has always had a passion for dance, Dancing from the age of three, by the time she was eight she knew for certain that dance was her chosen career and has never lost that commitment.

At 17 Ellie wanted to attend Brighton Academy, a prestigious college which offers specialist courses in dance and musical theatre. Not eligible for any government grant, she was working numerous jobs to help pay for her fees and accommodation.

Ellie is a dedicated dancer who is passionate about a career in the performing arts. Her hard work and enthusiasm shone through her application. She has studied ballet, pointe, tap, modern, musical theatre and acrobatics, alongside jazz and lyrical.

With the help of a grant from the Wavendon Foundation, Ellie completed an SQA Advanced Certificate Foundation Course at Brighton Academy. She has now enrolled in a three year course in musical theatre.

“We are delighted to support this young lady in her chosen career. Her dedication and commitment made her an ideal grant recipient. Ellie keeps us up to date with regular updates, the last of which ended with “loving life”

The Trustees, Wavendon Foundation

Images with kind permission of Ellie Marshall.